SCRIPTURAL TRUTH AND POLITICS.

Some Gospel for Overly Pious Politicians.

To the Editor of the Republic:

"For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ." Early in the work of Jesus Christ on earth he found a class of men high up in the church as leaders and teachers who were opposed to his teaching of mercy, and in order to catch him they caught a woman in the act of adultery, and they brought her to him, and stating her crime, said, "Moses commanded such to be stoned. Now, what do you say?" "He that is without sin let him cast the first stone," was the reply, and there was not a stone thrown at her. They found where the shoe pinched. They had to get rid of sin. But these scribes and pharisees were equal to the emergency. They would devote themselves to prayer. They prayed everywhere, and especially on the street corners, where they could be seen of men, and it was not long until they could stand up and tell the Lord how good they were—not like other men—not like that poor sinner of a publican. They were now without sin and were ready to stone anyone who broke the law of Moses, as though Jesus Christ had made a mistake in introducing grace and truth as the foundation stone in his religion.

This class of scribes and pharisees are not all dead yet and they are praying and telling the Lord how good they are, and that they are ready to demonstrate to him that their plan of converting the world by law is much superior to His of grace and truth: "Only give us law and we will make it so hot for sinners that they will be more than ready to give up sin."

Station House State.

This morning's state shows up with quite an array of names, many of them recognized as those of old timers. They are: Richard Deffenbach, on warrant; Thomas Meligan, drunk; Mrs. Kuttroff, drunk and disorderly; Francis Kinsie, drunk; and Ben Hollinger and Lon Maxwell, loitering.

Mr. OLIVER S. KELLY, republican candidate for mayor, speaking of the men employed by his company, says: "They may belong to any church, any political party, or any organization of any kind. They have and are entitled, in that respect, to perfect freedom. They have never been hampered by me or by any member of the company, and, so long as I have anything to say about it, they never shall be."

Card From H. L. Rockfield.

The statement in Thursday's New Era that Mr. Oliver S. Kelly had any connection with the stopping of the Duckworth club in this city a year ago is a bare-faced and deliberate lie. The statement that Mr. Kelly told me to go ahead and sell liquor after hours to the delegates of the republican state convention and that he (Mr. Kelly) would pay the fine is a lie of whole cloth, and the writer of both cards is an anonymous coward.

HARRY L. ROCKFIELD,
Prop. Arcade Hotel.

Editor Rowe is a Candidate.

In another column of this paper will be found the announcement of Mr. W. H. Rowe, the genial and whole-souled editor of the South Charleston Sentinel for the republican nomination for county recorder. Editor Rowe has shied his castor into the political arena, and has gone in to win. For four terms he has served the people of Madison township as their clerk, and will on Monday be re-elected without opposition for a fifth term, which is sufficient evidence that his own neighbors believe in him.

Mr. Rowe is a young man eminently well qualified for the office to which he aspires, and would make an efficient and popular officer. The Sentinel and its editor have never faltered in their ardent and good work for the party in past years, and the mantle of reward could not fall on more worthy shoulders.

CLEVELAND'S SUPERIOR BAKING POWDER DESERVES TO BE HIGHLY RECOMMENDED.

I have made a very careful analysis of CLEVELAND'S SUPERIOR BAKING POWDER, bought from grocers in this city, and have found it to be perfectly pure, and manufactured from the best quality of Cream of Tartar and other materials. It is entirely free from Alum, Acid Phosphates, Terra Alba and other substances, which are frequently used for the manufacture and adulteration of Baking Powders; and on account of its purity and healthful constituents deserves to be highly recommended.
